A very pretty but quiet wedding ceremony was solemnized Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Bowers Fourteenth and D streets, when their eldest daughter, Miss Mamie, was united in marriage to Mr. Alva Townsend by Rev. Dr. Lasby of St. Paul's Methodist church. The ceremony occurred promptly at 8:30 o'clock after which a wedding supper was served. At about 10 o'clock the happy couple departed to their new home at 1611 E street, which had been furnished in readiness for their arrival. Both young people are well and favorably known in Lincoln having lived here a number of years. Mr. and Mrs. Townsend will be at home to their friends after July 1st.

IN OMAHA.

Much regret is expressed at the untimely end of Mr. F. N. Vail, city passenger agent of the Burlington route in this city. On Saturday afternoon he was operated upon for a cancerous tumor and after much suffering death came to his relief Sunday evening at six o'clock. Mr. Vail was always genial and very courteous and had many warm personal friends. Much sympathy is felt for his widow and child who survive him.

Dainty in every respect was the anniversary luncheon given by Mrs. C. W. Hall on Saturday last. Her guests were: Mrs. Offutt, Miss McKenna, Miss Nash, Miss Yates, Miss Bessie Yates, Miss Laura Hoagland and Mable Balcombe. In the centre of the highly polished table rested a large cut glass bowl laden with bride roses, while at the end were vases filled with the same flowers.

In honor of Capt. and Mrs. J. C. Ayres, Mr. and Mrs. Gifford gave a very pretty dinner last Friday evening. Those present were: Capt. and Mrs. Ayres, Mr. and Mrs. Kilpatrick, Miss Rodman and Dr. Bridges.

"The Tramps" those members of the Omaha Guards who went into camp near California Junction ten days ago, have returned to Omaha. They had many visitors while under canvas and all who dropped in upon them were treated to a royally good time.

The grounds of the Omaha Lawn Tennis club have been well filled with visitors every afternoon and evening this week. The playing for the city championship has been remarkably good in the doubles as well as in the singles. One very excellent feature about this year's tournament is the allowing of young woman to participate in the sport. Although this will go to press before the games will have ended, still I shall again pick Cullingham as the winner in the singles.
